

FLYER DISTRIBUTION VOLUNTEER POSITION DESCRIPTION

BACKGROUND AND PROGRAM SCOPE

Neighborhood House helps diverse communities of people with limited resources attain their goals for self-sufficiency, financial independence health and community building. In support of this mission, Neighborhood House is committed to providing quality early childhood education services to preschool children at several locations throughout King County.

Help Neighborhood House recruit families and staff for our programs by delivering informational flyers to libraries and community centers in Seattle.

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Pick up flyers from a Neighborhood House location on a mutually convenient date and time.
- Deliver flyers to the front desk of each library and community center* in Seattle. Be friendly and courteous to library and community center staff.

*Note: If you'd like to take flyers to a specific group of locations, for example those in South and West Seattle, that can be arranged.

QUALIFICATIONS

- Personal transportation is required.
- Able to positively represent Neighborhood House.

TIMEFRAME

We would like to have this project completed as soon as possible.
